*Annual Stockholders Meeting held on August 28, 2015

(b) Provide a brief summary of the corporate governance policy that the board of directors has adopted. Please emphasis the policy/ies relative to the treatment of all shareholders, respect for the rights of minority shareholders and of the stakeholders, disclosure duties, and board responsibilities.

Treatment of all shareholders

Each share entitles the holder to one vote that may be exercised in person or by proxy at shareholder meetings, including the Annual Stockholders' Meeting. The shareholders have the right to elect, remove and replace directors and vote on certain corporate acts in accordance with the Corporation Code. Voting procedures on matters presented for approval to the stockholders in the Annual Stockholders' Meeting are set out in the Definitive Information Statement, which is sent to all stockholders of record at least 15 days before the date of meeting.

Respect for the rights of minority shareholders and of other stakeholders.

The Board of Directors shall ensure that all rights of stockholders as mandated and set forth in the Corporation Code of the Philippines, Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws of the Company shall be respected. Among these rights of stockholders as provided for in the Corporation Code are : right to vote on all matters that require their consent or approval; pre-emptive right to all stock issuances of the corporation; right to inspect corporate books and records; right to information; right to dividends and appraisal right.

Disclosure Duties

The essence of corporate governance is transparency. The Board believes that the more transparent the internal workings of the corporation are, the more difficult it will be for Management and dominant stockholders to mismanage the corporation or misappropriate its assets. It is therefore essential that all material information about the corporation which could adversely affect its viability or the interest of the stockholders should be publicly and timely disclosed. Such information include, among others, earnings results, acquisition or disposition of assets, off balance sheet transactions, related party transactions, minimum public ownership, direct/indirect remuneration of members of the Board and Management and other corporate disclosures required for reporting by the regulators.

All required information are fully disclosed through the submission and filing made to the SEC and the PSE.

Board Responsibilities

It is the Board's responsibility to foster the long-term success of the corporation, and to sustain its competitiveness and profitability in a manner consistent with its corporate objectives and the best interests of its stockholders.

The Board should formulate the corporation's vision, mission, strategic objectives, policies and procedures that shall guide its activities, including the means to effectively monitor Management's performance.

(c) How often does the Board review and approve the vision and mission?

The Company's vision and mission statement is reviewed and approved as often as required.

Provide the company's definition of "independence" and describe the company's compliance to the definition.

Independent Director means a person who, apart from his fees and shareholdings, is independent of management and free from any business or other relationship which could, or could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with his exercise of independent judgment in carrying out his responsibilities as a director in any covered company and includes, among others, any person who:

- Is not a director or officer of the company or of its related companies or any of its substantial shareholders except when the same shall be an independent director of any of the foregoing;
- Does not own more than two percent (2%) of the shares of the company and/or its related companies or any its substantial shareholders;
- Is not related to any director, officer or substantial shareholder of the company, any of its related companies or any of its substantial shareholders. For this purpose, relatives include spouse, parent, child, brother, sister, and the spouse of such child, brother or sister;
- Is not acting as a nominee or representative of any director or substantial shareholder of the company, and/or any of its related companies and/or any of its substantial shareholders, pursuant to a Deed Trust or under any contract or arrangement;

Pursuant to the applicable rules and regulations of the SEC, independent directors are nominated and elected in the Annual Stockholders' Meeting and each director issues a certification confirming his independence within 30 days from his election. Messrs. Senen Baccay and Christian Grant YuTomas are currently the Company's Independent Directors.

Does the company have a term limit of five consecutive years for independent director? If after two years, the company wishes to bring back an independent director who had served for five years, does it limit the term for no more than four additional years? Please explain.

The company follows the SEC's guidelines on setting the term limit for an Independent Director.

The company will formalize its policy which will be consistent with the related SEC Memorandum Circular 9, Series of 2011 on the Term Limit for Independent Directors, which took effect on January 2, 2012.

Risk Exposure	Risk Management Policy	Objective
---------------	------------------------	-----------

Competitive Risk	On-going renovation of mall facilities	To create a one stop shop commercial center that can offer a complete mix of everything delightful products to all mall shoppers
Liquidity Risk	As an inherent part of its liquidity risk management, the Group regularly evaluates its projected and actual cash flows. To cover its short-term and long-term funding requirements, the Group intends to use internally generated funds and available short-term and long-term credit facilities.	The group seeks to manage its liquidity risk to be able to meet its operating cash flow requirements, finance capital expenditures and service maturing debts.
Market Risk		Market risk is the risk of loss to future earnings, to fair values or to future cash flows that may result from changes in the price of a financial instrument. The value of a financial instrument may change as a result of changes in interest rates.
Interest rate risk	In certain cases, depending on its assessment of future movements of interest rates, the Group would pre-terminate its debt and obtain a new loan facility which provides for either floating or fixed interest rates. This is intended to minimize its financing costs.	In order to effectively manage its interest risk and its financing costs, the Group closely monitors the movements of interest rates, as well as, economic factors affecting the trends of these movements.
Credit risk	The Group manages its credit risk in accordance with its credit risk policies which requires the evaluation of the credit worthiness of the debtors. The Group's exposure to credit risk on its other receivables from debtors and related parties is managed through close account monitoring and setting limits.	The Group's exposure to credit risk on its receivables relates primarily to the inability of the debtors to pay and fully settle the unpaid balance of receivables owed to the Group.
